UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

COMES NOW the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel, Karen P. Hewitt, United States Attorney, and Steven De Salvo, Assistant United States Attorney, and hereby files its response and opposition to motions filed by defendant TRINIDAD MORA-GARCIA. Said response is based upon this response and opposition, the files and records of the case, and argument.

I.STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On January 22, 2008, the Defendant was arraigned on an Indictment charging him with one count of Deported Alien Found In the United States, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326(a) and (b); three counts of Bringing in Illegal Aliens for Financial Gain, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1324(a)(2)(B)(ii); and three counts of Bringing in Illegal Aliens Without Presentation, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 13244(a)(2)(B)(iii). Defendant entered a not guilty plea to all counts.

II.POINTS AND AUTHORITIES*A. STANDARD DISCOVERY REQUESTS

The United States will provide 139 pages of written discovery to Defendant. The United States also will make all video recorded statements by Defendant and material witnesses.

As to the specific discovery and evidentiary requests of Defendant, the Government responds as follows:

1. The Government Will Disclose Information Subject To Disclosure Under Rule 16(a)(1)(A) and (B) Of The Federal Rules Of Criminal Procedure

The government will disclose defendant's statements subject to discovery under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) (substance of defendant's oral statements in response to government interrogation) and 16(a)(1)(B) (defendant's relevant written or recorded statements, written records containing substance of defendant's oral statements in response to government interrogation, and defendant's grand jury testimony).

2. The Government Will Comply With Rule 16(a)(1)(D)

The defendant will be provided with his or her own "rap" sheet and the government will produce any additional information it uncovers regarding defendant's criminal record. Any subsequent or prior similar acts of defendant that the government intends to introduce under Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence will be provided, along with any accompanying reports, at the reasonable time in advance of trial.

1 3. The Government Will Comply With Rule 16(a)(1)(E)

2 The government will permit defendant to inspect and copy or photograph all books, papers,
3 documents, data, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, or portions thereof, that are 4 material to the preparation of defendant's defense or are intended for use by the government as 5 evidence-in-chief at trial or were obtained from or belong to defendant. This will include an
6 inspection of Defendant's "A-File."

7 Reasonable efforts will be made to preserve relevant physical evidence which is in the 8 custody and control of the investigating agency and the prosecution, with the following exceptions:
9 drug evidence, with the exception of a representative sample, is routinely destroyed after 60 days,
10 and vehicles are routinely and periodically sold at auction. Records of radio transmissions, if they 11 existed, are frequently kept for only a short period of time and may no longer be available. Counsel
12 should contact the Assistant assigned to the case two weeks before the scheduled trial date and the 13 Assistant will make arrangements with the case agent for counsel to view all evidence within the 14 government's possession..

15 4. The Government Will Comply With Rule 16(a)(1)(F)

16 The government will permit defendant to inspect and copy or photograph any results or 17 reports of physical or mental examinations, and of scientific tests or experiments, or copies thereof, 18 that are within the possession of the government, and by the exercise of due diligence may become 19 known to the attorney for the government and are material to the preparation of the defense or are 20 intended for use by the government as evidence-in-chief at the trial. Counsel for defendant should 21 contact the Assistant United States Attorney assigned to the case and the Assistant will make 22 arrangements with the case agent for counsel to view all evidence within the government's 23 possession.

24 5. The Government Will Comply With Its Obligations Under Brady v.
25 Maryland

26 The government is well aware of and will fully perform its duty under Brady v. Maryland,
27 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976) to disclose exculpatory
28 evidence within its possession that is material to the issue of guilt or punishment. Defendant, however, is not entitled to all evidence known or believed to exist that is, or may be, favorable to

1 the accused, or that pertains to the credibility of the government's case. As stated in United States
 2 v. Gardner, 611 F.2d 770 (9th Cir. 1980), it must be noted that:

3 [T]he prosecution does not have a constitutional duty to disclose every bit of 4 information that might affect the jury's decision; it need only disclose information favorable to the defense that meets the appropriate standard of materiality.
 5 611 F.2d at 774-775 (citations omitted). See also United States v. Sukumolachan, 610 F.2d 685,
 6 687 (9th Cir. 1980) (the government is not required to create exculpatory material that does not
 7 exist); United States v. Flores, 540 F.2d 432, 438 (9th Cir. 1976) (Brady does not create any pretrial
 8 privileges not contained in the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure).

9 6. Discovery Regarding Government Witnesses

10 a. Agreements. The Government will disclose the terms of any agreements by 11 Government agents, employees or attorneys with witnesses that testify at trial. Such information
 12 will be provided at the time of the filing of the Government's trial memorandum.^{1/} The 13 Government will comply with its obligations to disclose impeachment evidence under Giglio v.
 14 United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972).

15 b. Bias or Prejudice. The Government will provide information related to the bias,
 16 prejudice or other motivation to lie of Government trial witnesses as required in Napue v. Illinois, 17 360 U.S. 264 (1959).

18 c. Criminal Convictions. The Government has produced or will produce any criminal 19 convictions of Government witnesses plus any material criminal acts which did not result in 20 conviction. The Government is not aware that any prospective witness is under criminal 21 investigation.

22 d. Ability to Perceive. The government will produce in discovery any evidence that the 23 ability of a government trial witness to perceive, communicate or tell the truth is impaired or that 24 such witnesses have ever used narcotics or other controlled substances, or are alcoholics.

25 ¹ As with all other offers by the Government to produce discovery earlier than it is 26 required to do, the offer is made without prejudice. If, as trial approaches, the 27 Government is not prepared to make early discovery production, or if there is a strategic reason not to do so as to certain discovery, the Government reserves the right to withhold the requested material until the time it is required to be produced pursuant to discovery laws and rules.

1 e. Witness List. The Government will endeavor to provide the defendant with a list of 2 all witnesses which it intends to call in its case-in-chief at the time the Government's trial
 3 memorandum is filed, although delivery of such a list is not required. See United States v.
 4 Dischner, 960 F.2d 870 (9th Cir. 1992); United States v. Culter, 806 F.2d 933, 936 (9th Cir. 1986);
 5 United States v. Mills, 810 F.2d 907, 910 (9th Cir. 1987). Defendant, however, is not entitled to 6 the production of addresses or phone numbers of possible Government witnesses. See United 7 States v. Thompson, 493 F.2d 305, 309 (9th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 419 U.S. 834 (1974). The 8 defendant has already received access to the names of potential witnesses in this case in the 9 investigative reports previously provided to him.

10 f. Witnesses Not to Be Called. The Government is not required to disclose all evidence
 11 it has or to make an accounting to the defendant of the investigative work it has performed. Moore
 12 v. Illinois, 408 U.S. 786, 795 (1972); see United States v. Gardner, 611 F.2d 770, 774-775 (9th 13 Cir. 1980). Accordingly, the Government objects to defendant's request for discovery concerning 14 any individuals whom the Government does not intend to call as witnesses.

15 g. Favorable Statements. The Government has disclosed or will disclose the names of 16 witnesses, if any, who have made favorable statements concerning the defendant which meet the 17 requirements of Brady.

18 h. Review of Personnel Files. The Government has requested a review of the personnel 19 files of all federal law enforcement individuals who will be called as witnesses in this case for 20 Brady material. The Government has requested that counsel for the appropriate federal law
 21 enforcement agency conduct such review. United States v. Herring, 83 F.3d 1120 (9th Cir. 1996);
 22 see, also, United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488, 1492 (9th Cir. 1992); United States v.
 23 Dominguez-Villa, 954 F.2d 562 (9th Cir. 1992).

24 Pursuant to United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991) and United States v.
 25 Cadet, 727 F.2d 1452 (9th Cir. 1984), the United States agrees to "disclose information favorable
 26 to the defense that meets the appropriate standard of materiality . . ." United States v. Cadet, 727
 27 F.2d at 1467, 1468. Further, if counsel for the United States is uncertain about the materiality of 28

1 the information within its possession in such personnel files, the information will be submitted to
 2 the Court for in camera inspection and review.

3 i. Government Witness Statements. Production of witness statements is governed by 4 the Jencks Act (Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500) and need occur only after the witness
 5 testifies on direct examination. United States v. Taylor , 802 F.2d 1108, 1118 (9th Cir. 1986);
 6 United States v. Mills, 641 F.2d 785, 790 (9th Cir. 1981)). Indeed, even material believed to be
 7 exculpatory and therefore subject to disclosure under the Brady doctrine, if contained in a witness
 8 statement subject to the Jencks Act, need not be revealed until such time as the witness statement
 9 is disclosed under the Act. See United States v. Bernard, 623 F.2d 551, 556-57 (9th Cir. 1979).

10 The government reserves the right to withhold the statements of any particular witnesses it
 11 deems necessary until after the witness testifies. Otherwise, the government will disclose the 12 statements of witnesses at the time of the filing of the government's trial memorandum before trial, 13 provided that defense counsel has complied with defendant's obligations under Federal Rules of 14 Criminal Procedure 12.1, 12.2, and 16 and 26.2 and provided that defense counsel turn over all 15 "reverse Jencks" statements at that time.

16 7. The Government Objects To The Full Production Of Agents'
 17 Handwritten Notes At This Time

18 Although the government has no objection to the preservation of agents' handwritten notes,
 19 it objects to requests for full production for immediate examination and inspection. If certain rough 20 notes become relevant during any evidentiary proceeding, those notes will be made available.

21 Prior production of these notes is not necessary because they are not "statements" within the 22 meaning of the Jencks Act unless they comprise both a substantially verbatim narrative of a 23 witness' assertions and they have been approved or adopted by the witness. United States v.
Spencer, 618 F.2d 605, 606-607 (9th Cir. 1980); see also United States v. Griffin, 659 F.2d 932, 24 936-938 (9th Cir. 1981).

25 8. All Investigatory Notes and Arrest Reports

26 The government objects to the defendant's request for production of all arrest reports, 27 investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, and prosecution reports pertaining to the 28 defendant. Such reports, except to the extent that they include Brady material or the statements of

1 defendant, are protected from discovery by Rule 16(a)(2) as "reports . . . made by . . . Government
 2 agents in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the case."

3 Although agents' reports have already been produced to the defense, the government is not
 4 required to produce such reports, except to the extent they contain Brady or other such material.
 5 Furthermore, the government is not required to disclose all evidence it has or to render an
 6 accounting to defendant of the investigative work it has performed. Moore v. Illinois, 408 U.S.
 7 786, 795 (1972); see United States v. Gardner, 611 F.2d 770, 774-775 (9th Cir. 1980).

8 9. Expert Witnesses.

9 Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G), at or about the time of filing its trial memorandum,
 10 the Government will provide the defense with notice of any expert witnesses the testimony of 11 whom the Government intends to use under Rules 702, 703, or 705 of the Fed. R. of Evidence in 12 its case-in-chief. Such notice will describe the witnesses' opinions, the bases and the reasons
 13 therefor, and the witnesses' qualifications. Reciprocally, the Government requests that the defense
 14 provide notice of its expert witnesses pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b)(1)(C).

15 10. Information Which May Result in Lower Sentence.

16 Defendant claims that the Government must disclose information about any cooperation or 17 any attempted cooperation with the Government as well as any other information affecting 18 defendant's sentencing guidelines because such information is discoverable under Brady v.
 19 Maryland. The Government respectfully contends that it has no such disclosure obligations under 20 Brady.

21 The Government is not obliged under Brady to furnish a defendant with information which 22 he already knows. United States v. Taylor, 802 F.2d 1108, 1118 n.5 (9th Cir. 1986), cert. denied,
 23 479 U.S. 1094 (1987); United States v. Prior, 546 F.2d 1254, 1259 (5th Cir. 1977). Brady is a rule
 24 of disclosure. There can be no violation of Brady if the evidence is already known to the defendant.

25 Assuming that defendant did not already possess the information about factors which might 26 affect their respective guideline ranges, the Government would not be required to provide 27 information bearing on defendant's mitigation of punishment until after defendant's conviction or 28 plea of guilty and prior to his sentencing date. "No [Brady] violation occurs if the evidence is disclosed to the defendant at a time when the disclosure remains of value." United States v. Juvenile Male, 864 F.2d 641 (9th Cir. 1988).

B. LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

The United States does not oppose Defendant's request for leave to file further motions, so long as discovery motions are based on discovery not yet received by Defendant.

II.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Government respectfully requests that the defendant's motions, except where not opposed, be denied.

DATED: March 25, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
